

Williams Products, Inc

MASONPRO, Inc.
 43300 Seven Mile Road
 Northville, MI 48167
 1-800-659-4731

LEEDS document for Everlastic expanded, closed cell, plank, polyethylene foam Expand-O-Foam 1380 Series.

The Troy, MI location of Williams Products, Inc, Manufactures a variety of closed cell synthetic rubber [EPDM/Neoprene/SBR/ECH, Vinyl Nitrile (NBR/PVC) and plastic (EVA/PE blends)] products. These cellular industrial synthetic rubber and /or plastic based materials are typically used for gasketing, expansion joints, and sealing applications and are sold in sheets, strips or cut parts.

Williams Everlastic expanded, closed cell, plank polyethylene foam. Williams Products, Inc manufactures a white closed cell polyethylene foam, 2lb to 2.4./ft³ (96 ± 32 kg/m) density, general purpose, polyethylene product # Expand-O-Foam 1380, that meets all the physical property requirements of ASTM D 3575

Recycled Content: There are no recycled materials used in the production of the Williams Products Everlastic Expand-O-Foam 1380 Series expanded closed cell polyethylene plank.

VOC emissions in g/L of Williams Expand-O-Foam 1380 series	The VOC emissions have not been measured for Expand-O-Foam 1380 series
Where (city and country) you get raw material and how it is shipped (truck, water or rail)	The raw material used in the production of Expand-O-Foam are purchased entirely in USA and are shipped into the plant by truck.
The exact Location of the manufacturing (city and country) and how the finished product is shipped (truck, rail or water)	Expand-O-Foam is fabricated in Troy, mi. The finished product is shipped by truck to the user.
Is there any recycled content and if yes percentage of post-industrial and % of post-consumer	No recycled content
Is this material rapidly renewable?	No

Certified by: Emiddio Zarro
 Production Manager - Williams Products Inc. Troy Facility

Date: 12-17-08

